“South Australia - a brilliant blend”

Offering an enticing combination of beauty, culture and heritage, South Australia is a place where lively urban energy is strikingly offset by the tranquility of abundant open space.

Whether you're looking for entertainment or relaxation, Adelaide, the state's capital, delivers. Often regarded as Australia's arts capital, the city is home to a multitude of festivals, sophisticated architecture, galleries, theatres, sport and vibrant live music and culinary offerings.

Providing a refreshing change of pace from the city is the scenic Adelaide Hills. This picturesque region yields a host of hidden gems, complete with spectacular views and charming villages brimming with cafes, markets and local craft shops.

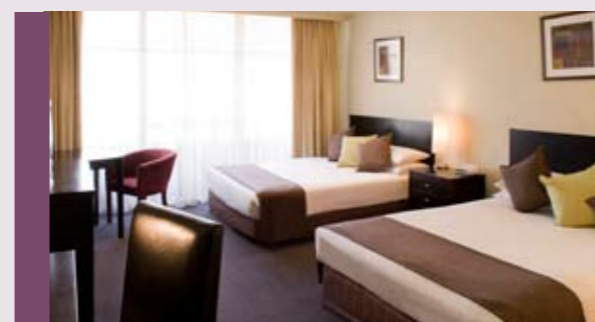

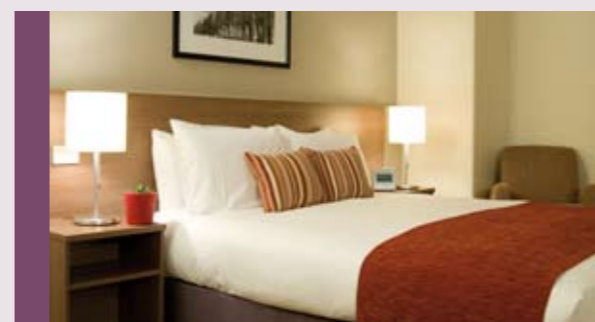

Less than an hour from Adelaide lay the country's best-known wine regions – the Barossa and Clare Valleys and the Coonawarra. Boasting over 200 cellar doors, plus a sumptuous collection of eateries and tempting food and wine trails, the state's wine country is simply world-class.

South Australia is also a haven for ocean-lovers with its thousands of kilometres of coastline. From the exquisite beauty, adventure and fresh produce of the Fleurieu Peninsula to the Eyre and Yorke Peninsulas and the Limestone Coast, the state's coastal regions are resplendent in their cool, turquoise waters and expansive surfing beaches.

With all this and so much more, whichever way you look at it – South Australia offers a brilliant blend.

Accor has South Australia covered.
